Q.No. 11: Is there any restriction for filling up number of choices of Institutions (Colleges) or subjects in choice filling form?

Ans: No, you can give as many choices as you wish. However choices should be in order of preference, as the allotment is done on the basis of choices submitted by the qualified candidate in order of preference and as per availability.

Q.No.12: Can I have some idea about the seat I am likely to get at my rank?

Ans: You can have some idea by

- a. Please log on to www.mcc.nic.in / www.mohfw.nic.in website – from home page go to medical counseling – open post-Graduate counseling (for previous years) – open composite allotment list. From the information that you will see, you get some idea of pattern in previous year(s). This will only be indicative (without any guarantee for the current year).

b. Processing of Mock Counseling Result and publishing of Indicative Seat Allotment

During Mock Counseling, choices submitted by the candidates will be processed twice during the counseling period (Registration) and indicative seat that is likely available at that point of time would be displayed, before allotment of Round-1. This indication helps the candidate to refine the selection of choices in a more effective and efficient manner. Indicative allotment of seat (Mock allotment), will be shown twice on notified dates (will be notified on this website). The result will be made available on the next day. In case no indicative seat is shown allotted to you, this indicates that none of the choices submitted by you were available at your rank. Hence you should modify your list of choices as per your rank.

Q.No. 13. Is it necessary to fill up the choices and lock the choices to get seat allotted? Or I will be allotted seat automatically from available seats?

Ans: After online registration (registration is compulsory to take part in online allotment process), you have to fill in choice of subjects and Institutions/colleges in order of preference. Once choice is filled in, it can be modified before locking it. During the choice locking period it is necessary to lock the choices to get a print of your submitted choices. If candidate does not lock the choice submitted by him/her, submitted choices by him/her will be automatically locked at 5.00PM of last date of choice locking, however you will be allowed to take a print of your choices after that but you will not be permitted to modify your choices.

If you don't register and fill in any choice, you will not be allotted any seat.

Important:

Don't wait till the last minute to lock your choices and to take a printout. Please go through your submitted choices before locking as once you lock the choices the same cannot be modified or changed even if you have made a mistake. Mistake in filling choices may result in allotment of a seat which you never wanted.

Q.No. 14: Is it necessary to join allotted Medical/Dental College to get chance to participate in next round (2nd/3rd round)?

Ans: Yes, in case a seat is allotted, candidate is required to join allotted institution/college and complete the admission formalities then only t h a t candidate can exercise option to participate in next round(s).

Please note that in case you do not give option to participate in Round-2 and/ or Round-3 at the time of joining of seat allotted during Round -1, you will not be considered eligible for participating in Round-2/Round-3.

Similarly in case you do not opt for participation in Round-3 at the time of joining of seat allotted during Round-2, you will not be considered eligible for participating in Round-3.

Q.No. 15 : Some new post-graduate seats are created (increase in PG seats) but intimated to the MCC after start of online counseling, will they be included and when?

Ans: Newly created seats that could not be included in first round (and second round) due to non-reporting / late reporting/ reporting after start of first round of online allotment process will be included only in third round on receiving information from participating Medical / Dental Colleges before the start of third round (publication of the seat matrix for third round).

Ans: Third round of online allotment will be conducted for the candidates who have submitted their option for participation in third round and for those who were registered and submitted choices before first round but not allotted seats as per procedure given below:

3rd round of Counseling:

Fresh set of seats gets added to the system, if any, which is due to latest approvals of MCI. Further, the conversion of seats is being carried out during the third round of seat allotment and accordingly, the candidates are required to be shown all choices which are against vacant, newly added seats, virtual vacancies which are likely to get vacated during up-gradation and also during the conversion of seats as per the following algorithm:

ST (PH) -> ST

SC (PH) -> SC

UR (PH) -> UR

OBC (PH) -> OBC

ST -> SC

SC-> UR

The choices of candidates, who have submitted option for participation in the third round during the reporting period for the first / second round seat allotment, would be initialized (reset), and are required to submit fresh choices online during the time the window is open for the same.

All eligible candidates who desire to take part in third round of online allotment will have to submit fresh choice during choice submission period and lock the choices during period of locking.

There will not be any indicative allotment in 3rd round of allotment, locked choices of the candidates would be processed and result will be published. Those candidates, who could not submit fresh choices for the third round counseling, would not be considered.

Who are eligible for 3rd Round of allotment:

All candidates interested in participation in the third round counseling are required to submit fresh choices, without which they would not be considered.

Group-I: Registered candidates who did not get any seat allotment in the 1st or 2nd round of seat allotment and are required to submit fresh choices as per the vacancies shown.

Group-II: Registered candidates, whose 2nd round of allotted Seat Cancelled during the document verification on reporting for admission, who have secured seat under reserved quota, due to change of Category from reserved to Unreserved or PH status from Yes to No, but they would still be eligible in the next round of seat allotment, with changed criteria, provided they submit fresh choices, subject to fulfillment of eligibility conditions.

Group–III: Candidates who have given option for participation in 3rd round at the time of 1st and/or 2nd round reporting at allotted institutions.

- Became non-eligible due to change of category during document verification
- Candidate who has not given option for third round at the time of taking admission.
- Candidate who does not give (submit) fresh choices in 3rd round.
- Who did not register for online allotment of seat before first round of counseling.

Q.No. 18: Do I have to fill in choice of subject and College to participate in second round of online allotment process?

Ans: No. For second round, candidates are not required to submit fresh choice. During the second round of online allotment process, the choice of higher preference will be upgraded for those candidates who give option to upgrade their choice at the time of admission at allotted Medical/Dental College.

Q.No. 19: Do I have to fill in fresh choice of subjects and Colleges to participate in third round of online allotment process?

Ans: Yes. All candidates who desire to take part in third round will have to submit fresh choices before third round. Please see details in answer to question number (Q.No.) 17 above.

Q.No. 20: If there is not sufficient number of qualified PH candidates, what will happen to those un-allotted PG seats, reserved for PH candidates?

Ans: The un-allotted PG seats earmarked for UR-PH, SC-PH, ST-PH and OBC-PH will be reverted to respective categories like SC-PH to SC and so on, during the third round of allotment process after processing choices to PH category candidates in third round.

Q.No. 21: If I give consent for up-gradation of my choice during second round and if my choice is upgraded, is it necessary to join at college allotted during second round? Or in case I change my decision of upgrading choice, can I continue to study in college allotted through first round of allotment?

Ans: In case candidate is allotted seat during the second round of allotment process (choice is up-graded), the seat allotted during the first round will be automatically cancelled immediately (and allotted to somebody else) and candidate will have to join the college/seat allotted during second round. If candidate does not join the college/seat allotted during the second round, within stipulated time, as per schedule, from the date of allotment candidate will forfeit his/her allotted seat and will not be considered for subsequent rounds of seat allotment. Seat can also be up-graded in the same college by change of category (i.e. ST/SC/OBC to UR) in such a case the candidate has to take fresh admission on the up-graded seat.

Q.No. 22: While joining college allotted through first round if I don't want up-gradation of choice, but want to keep option to fill choice before third round for newly added/vacant PG seat, is it possible?

Ans: Yes. For this candidate is required to exercise the option at the time of joining the institution/college.

Q.No 23: If I give option to participate in third round at the time of joining college from first / second round allotment, but later change my decision and want to continue study at already allotted Medical /Dental College, what is the procedure to avoid change (cancellation) of already allotted college/seat?

Ans: If a candidate does not submit choice during the choice submission period before the third round of counseling, such a candidate will retain the already allotted seat.

Q.No. 24: If I forget my password that I have created during the process of registration, how to retrieve it.

Ans: To retrieve the forgotten password, system facilitates the following process:

The candidate is required to enter the information that he/she filled at the time of registration and then security question & answer thereon to be entered as given during New Candidate registration process. The above data submitted by candidate will be validated with the registered candidates' database. If the above entries match, then only the candidate would be permitted to enter new password to proceed further.

IMPORTANT

Candidates are advised to remember the password and also retain their application form and admit cards printout ready till completion of admission process. It is not possible for MCC/NIC to retrieve such password.

Q.No. 25: In case I have Birth Certificate / Caste Certificate/ other certificate(s) in regional language, will it be acceptable at the time of reporting?

Ans: Certificates issued by the competent authority should be in English or Hindi language. Please remember that some of the states insist for certificate in English language only. Candidates are advised to carry Certified Copy of English version of the original certificate, in case certificate issued is in other than English language along with original certificate.

Q.No. 26: If there is discrepancy in spelling of name in documents and application form, what do I do?

Ans: If there is discrepancy in spelling of name in documents candidate must carry proof that the documents belongs to same person, in the form of an affidavit.

Q.No. 27: Can I get prospectus (information Bulletin) of All India Post Graduate Medical / Dental Entrance Examination 2014 for admission to All India Quota post-graduate medical / Dental courses for admission to 50% of total seats on all-India basis?

Ans: Copy of prospectus is available on NBE website <http://www.nbe.gov.in> for Medical seats and AIIMS website <http://aiimsexams.org> for dental seats.

Q.No. 28: What about condition of Stipend / fee structure / course duration / bond amount / rendering of service in rural / tribal area/ other conditionalities.

Ans: Stipend /fee structure/ course duration / bond amount / rendering of service in rural / tribal area/ other conditions etc. may vary from State to State and Institute to Institute. Some seats may be approved/ permitted but not yet recognised by MCI. The allotment made through online allotment process will be firm and final as per Hon'ble Supreme Court's guidelines. Therefore, the candidates should well examine these points before opting for a seat at a medical college. The Medical Counseling Committee (MCC) shall neither be responsible nor shall entertain any case on above grounds, if any. The information received from various participating Medical / Dental Colleges has been made available on Ministry of Health & Family Welfare / MCC website (under the Medical Counseling -Post-graduate Counseling 2014 - Information about college, fee, bond information etc.). Candidates are advised to visit the website of college/ institution to check the information. In case they require any additional information, they can contact the college / institution on telephone.

Q.No.29: How to use registration and Choice filling form on website?

Ans: Candidates will have to log on to website www.mcc.nic.in to get registered (Registration facility will open on dates as mentioned in Schedule) and then fill in choices. It is advised that after going through the seat matrix, a tentative list may be prepared first as per your preference of subjects and colleges, before attempting to fill choices on-line.

Q.No. 30: What is indicative seat allotment (mock counseling result)?

Ans: Indicative seat allotment is the seat available for allotment to candidate at the time of processing of data by computer from choices submitted by the particular candidate. The indicative seat is to facilitate candidates to change, add or delete choices. The indicative seat allotted shown on these dates does not guarantee that the same seat will be allotted finally (during first round in present case).

Q.No. 31: Difficulty in login, what may be the problem(s)?

Ans: Please read User manual for the candidates. Follow the instructions about use of browser (Internet Explorer-6 or above), use of same spellings, same format of date (Use digits for day, month and year with – in between) as in application form submitted to NBE or AIIMS New Delhi. The internet connection should be uninterrupted. If internet connection interruption takes place, the IP address which is being monitored will change and session expired message will be displayed. Please try to login from other computer from which other candidate(s) has logged in successfully, if possible.

Q.No. 32: I have difficulty in Creating Password, what may be the problem(s)?

Ans: Creation of password should be as per password policy. Please follow the password policy. Please use the internet browser as suggested in user manual, as it is difficult to login from some of the other browsers. While creating password avoid using Caps Lock key, instead of Caps Lock use shift key.

Q.No. 33: When I try to login for choice filling/ submission, It say wrong roll number/ password, what may be problem(s)?

Ans: This can happen if Roll Number/Testing ID typed is incorrect or password typed is incorrect. Password is case sensitive, therefore use password which was created by user exactly same as typed while creating. In case password is forgotten, try to generate new password by using security question and its answer.

Q.No.34: What are the guidelines for fresh choice filling before third round of online allotment process?

Ans: Please remember that if any seat is allotted from the choice filled in by the candidate for 3rd Round of counseling the seat allotted during 1st / 2nd round will be automatically cancelled. Therefore, the candidates are advised to fill in choice carefully for seats which are of higher preference than the earlier allotted seat. Candidates are not required to give the already allotted seat in their choices.

Q.No. 35: Can I modify my choices between dates of choice submission for Round-3 ?

Ans: Yes, you can modify, add or delete your choices during this period, before you lock your choices. However, the registration (of New Users) is permitted up to date and time specified in Counseling Schedule, only.

Please note that you have to lock your choice between dates specified in Counseling Schedule (up to 5.00 PM).

Q.No. 36: I have not locked my choices before 5.00 PM on last date of locking choices , what will happen to my choices?

Ans: The choices submitted and saved by you will be locked by the system at 5.00 PM of last date/ date of choice locking as mentioned in Counseling Schedule, automatically.

Q.No. 37: How can I get print out of my choices which system has locked?

Ans: After 5.00 PM of last date / date of choice locking (or after choice locking) till beginning of choice filling for the third round of counseling print out can be taken from MCC website after login by the Candidate, link is available on the left hand side of the page as "Print Lock Choice". Similarly, print out of locked choices for third round can be taken from time of Choice Locking till end of PG counseling.

Q.No. 38: If I opt to participate in third round of counseling whether my allotted seat (of first/second round) will be cancelled?

Ans: In case you are not allotted any seat in the third round you will retain earlier allotted seat. However, on allotment of a seat in third round the earlier allotted seat will automatically be cancelled and allotted to another candidate.

Therefore you are advised to fill in only higher choices or any other choice which you prefer over the earlier allotted seat, for third round.

Q.No. 39: If I get an up-graded seat during second/ third round can I join that college directly?

Ans: No, you will have to get a relieving letter from the earlier institute/ college generated on-line, before you can join the next college / institution.

Q.No. 40: In case I get an upgraded seat but in the same college, because of change of category, (e.g. from SC / ST / OBC to UR category) do I have to take admission on the allotted seat again?

Ans: Yes, you have to get a relieving letter generated on-line for the earlier seat and then get an admission letter again generated on-line for the upgraded category seat from the concerned institution; otherwise your seat would be cancelled and allotted to another candidate or surrendered to state quota.

Q.No. 41: Can I know which of the seats are recognized or permitted by the MCI?

Ans: You may refer the MCI website or mohfw.nic.in website for this.

Q.No. 42: What are anticipated / virtual vacancies shown during third round?

Ans.: Virtual vacancies/anticipated vacancies are those seats which are presently occupied by the candidates who have given option for the third round. They will be available only in case that candidate is upgraded to another seat in third round. Once the virtual/ tentative vacancies are actually vacated these seats would again be distributed as per the rank of the candidates. These seats would also include any seat which is likely to be converted to other category as per the policy of conversion.

Q.No. 43: At the time of admission will my original certificates be retained by the institution?

ANS.: Yes, all the institutions have been instructed to retain original certificates of admitted students and release them only on up-gradation of the seat or resignation by the candidate.

Q.No. 44: Please explain process of counseling with the help of a flow chart.

Ans: The process is as under:

Process of Counseling (Flow Chart)
